

<!--

-->

CHÂTEAU CHEVAL BLANC

1929 was considered the vintage of the century for several decades.

This scorching year and historic drought has offered grapes of unparalleled richness in the twentieth century.

Château Cheval Blanc 1929 is a vintage of anthology, showing an elegance and an incredible vivacity despite his eighty five years of age.

TEMPERATURES AND RAINFALL

1929 is a year of very scorching drought.

RIPENING AND YIELDS

The harvest began on September 24th and ended on October 3rd.

Yields were exceptionally low with only 7.6 hectoliters / hectare, and grapes of historic richness, since with 14.6 °, Cheval Blanc 1929 wine features the highest alcohol degree of the twentieth century.